

HINDU SOCIETY
664, Garratt Lane, London SW17 0NP
Telephone: 0208 944 0251
Registered Charity No: 265903

Mission Statement:

Hindu Society objectives is advancement of the Hindu religion for the benefit of Hindus residing in South London by organising and providing the following.

- Owning or leasing and maintaining a building in South London for conducting Hindu religious functions and performing and Hindu religious rites and for use as a meeting place for Hindus for recreational and social and cultural activities of the Society.
- Organising a Hindu society engaged in a range of social, cultural, and religious activities to encourage and support people of the Hindu faith in their devotion to the Hindu religion and to bring into closer relation the members of the Hindu community.
- Providing services of Hindu priest.
- Organising and promoting recreational, cultural, and social activities for Hindus of all ages.
- Organising educational activities for learning Hindu religion in its various forms and philosophies, Hindu culture, Indian languages, Hindu traditions and culture including but not limited to its art, literature, music and dance.
- Providing social welfare and recreational facilities particularly but not exclusively for senior citizens and engaging in charitable activities for the benefit of the wider community.